FRIDAY EVENING, AUGUST 81.

A BRUTE SKINNED ALIVE .- Several weeks ago an eleven year old daughter of a Ballard county farmer mysteriously disappeared, and all efforts to find her whereabouts were fruitless until ten days after her disappearance, when a neighboring farmer, while cut searching for hiscow, heard the cries as of some one in distress, and following the direction of the sound found the lost child in a dense thicket, with both hands tied together with a rope, one end of which was tied to a tree. Near the tree were some old clothes upon which the child slept. The farmer inquired of the child haw she have pened to be there in that condition, when the telt him that a negro man hal brought her there and that he came there every night and brought her something to cat and drink, and that he viclated her person. The farmer told the child to remain quiet until night, and he would procure assistance and when the regro came back that night they would recure him, which they did. When the girl was asked what must be done with him she taid "Skin him alive," which they proceeded to do immediately. They commenced at the crown of his head and strippelithe skin to his eet. He only survived about five minutes after the ope ation .- May field (Ky.) Democrat.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Port Grape Wine of New Jersey is the best medicinal wine in the market, and it is said that the vintage of A. Speer far excelled any other produced. It is heavy in body, rich in flavor, and well adapted for sickly persons and for general family use. Physicians prescribe this wine in their practice.
